On Sunday, January 22, 1967, Ivon called and advised that we three should return to New Orleans immediately as of that date. At this time Ward and Otillio contacted Dardis and advised him that we would be leaving Miami. Dardis assured Ward and Otillio that he and his contacts would Dardis assured Ward and Otillio that he and his contacts would continue their efforts to locate the two outstanding figures, continue their efforts to locate the would keep us advised El Toro and El Bravo, and that he would keep us advised should any information turn up which might be pertinent to this investigation.