Report Exiles ⁵⁻¹ Support Nixon ¹⁰⁻¹¹⁻⁶⁸

The only presidential candidate offering a guarantee against Communist aggression and subversion in Latin and South America is Richard M. Nixon, said Emilio Nunez Portuondo of Miami, former Cuban ambassador to the United Nations.

During an interview yesterday, Portuondo, also director of the National Committee of Cuban Americans for Nixon-Agnew, said 95 per cent of the Cubans living in the United States are backing Nixon.

Portuondo will speak on behalf of the Republican campaign at a rally at 8 p. m. today in Jerusalem Temple.

The twice-president of the U.N. Security Council during his eight-year ambassadorship before the Castro communist takeover, said Nixon "has promised to help us in some way," and because of his attitude against communism, he will come through.

Noting some 10,000 Cubans are fighting in Vietnam and that Cuba can be freed only through internal revolution, Portuondo said, "All we ask is that America give us the same kind of support the Russians are giving the Viet Cong—weapons and materials."
