

Ruby Linked to Oswald and Ferrie

DALLAS, March 10 (UPI) — A former Dallas cab driver has said he drove Lee Harvey Oswald, David Ferrie and an older man from near Jack Ruby's apartment to Ruby's nightclub about six months prior to President Kennedy's murder, sources reported yesterday.

Raymon Cummings, 35, reportedly told members of New Orleans Dist. Atty. Jim Garrison's staff he could positively identify Oswald because he and the assassin swapped stories about the Marine Corps on a trip Oswald took in his cab to his suburban Irving home.

Cummings reportedly said that ten days later, he picked up a fare near Jack Ruby's apartment and took them to Ruby's nightclub.

He said two of those men were Lee Harvey Oswald and David Ferrie whom he identified from pictures of him in newspapers recently.

In New Orleans, The Orleans Parish (county) Grand Jury, at the request of Mr. Garrison's office, yesterday summoned an attorney who was asked to represent Oswald after the assassination and a woman who once worked for the only man arrested in Mr. Garrison's probe so far.

Dean A. Andrews, an assistant district attorney in neighboring Jefferson Parish, spent nine minutes in the grand jury room. He refused to talk to newsmen. He once told the Warren commission he was asked to represent Oswald by a man named Clay Bertrand. He said he refused because he was ill at the time.

Mrs. Josephine Hug spent 34 minutes with the jury. Her attorney, James Gelpi, said Mrs. Hug once worked for Clay L. Shaw, whom Mr. Garrison ordered arrested March 1 for conspiring to kill Mr. Kennedy. Mr. Shaw has been identified by Mr. Garrison as Clay Bertrand.
