

Dear Al,

1/14/93

Thanks for your 1/12 and its enclosures, including the SASE. You did send me that City Paper issue and I have Lonnie's home address and 800 office phone. 5 Chestnut St., Franklinville, NY 14737 and Tuesday through Saturday, after 4 p.m. at the Buffalo Evening News, 1/800-777-8680. I've been confused about days and three Monday's straight I called and then did not have time those three weeks to call when he'd be there. He gets to work not all that long before I have to retire! If you speak to him before I do, I'll get to that time of a day when I have the time and am not too tired, and I'll call him then.

I found the Clinton Witnesses very impressive. I met them and spent some time with them before they testified. But I was not able to take that on in addition to all I had so I made no effort to carry that forward. Which was probably impossible anyway. I did not get the transcripts of their testimony. AARc might have it because Fensterwald was latching onto everything.

I'd not heard of the Leavelle accident. Surprising that the tabloids have not thought of what you note says.

Sorry you and David could not make it. Hope you can soon, bugless. I've got enough of them now!

I'd heard that Livingstone was going to Dallas again. I've not heard from or about him in a while, not since I wrote him rather firmly and trying to persuade him to get the help he needs. I fear how he'll react if and when the incredible nonsense he is working on blows up on him. If you get any reports on how he stormed Dallas, I'm intersted.

Best to you all;

Dear Harold:

Thanks for your letter of December 20. I'm not surprised that you'd rather not get involved with re-publishing "Oswald in New Orleans," though I was hoping you might let me give it a go. If you ever change your mind, let me know.

Livingstone is in Dallas as I write. I understand he arrived there two days ago. He seems to be developing paranoia into an art form. I hope he doesn't create some sad consequences one day. Don't know anything about Groden's suit vs. Harry, if there really is one, but I know they had a face-to-face at the symposium in Dallas. Did I send you a copy of the "City Paper" article describing it?

I hope you and Lil are doing well. Dave and I were going to visit, but I've been under the weather with a cold since the start of the year, and I didn't want to disseminate my germs.

I have two JFK-related questions:

1. I've been very interested in the Clinton/Jackson episode recently. I'm especially trying to get the transcripts of the testimony that the 6 or 7 witnesses gave at the Shaw trial. I have Henry Earl Palmer and Edwin McGehee and would like to get the others. Do you have much on this episode?

2. Do you know where I might reach Lonnie Hudkins these days?

I'm enclosing a 1992 clip on the Clinton/Jackson story, along with a few other clips I thought you'd like, plus an SASE for your reply.

Cordially,

AC
