Dear Al,

Cunniff

I was under the impression I'd mailed you a copy. I suppose I wrote and said I would if you didn't have one. They were late getting to me, the copies I got.

I am interested in that crazy Livingstone's crazy idea, that have already done so much harm. Interviewed a year ago for The Investigator, which I do not get, he said that he would be publishing himself what C & G's lawyer told them had to be out.

You can imagine how vile that will be!

So I'll be interested in anything you can learn.

He may have a C & G contract for another book from what he has said in the past.

I suspect their sales on this one were disappointing.

On the Meagher files, I am inclined to think that you have to make the arrangements with the Librarian, Charles Kuhn. A fine man, too. They are in the library and in a locked room in flicked cabinets. I think there may be a list of the file-folder identifications but I'm not sure. There are quite a few cabinets of her records and I think you'd better have a good idea of what you want to look at or you'll waste all your time.

Hope you can come up soon and that when you do David can come with you.

Our best to them when you see or speak to him/~~it~~/them,

sincerely,

Harold

Dear Harold:

Thanks for your recent letter. Sorry I've taken so long to reply, but someone once said life is what happens to you when you're busy making other plans. That certainly describes me.

I would like to order a copy of your Posner book. Let me know how much to send and I'll put a check in the mail.

In answer to your other question, I have not heard anything about Livingstone, except a rumor that he was trying to put together "Killing the Truth Part Two," or something like that. He must have even more venom left in him. To be honest, I don't read his books, because I can't figure what he's trying to say, or what theory he is endorsing or discarding this week. He is someone I consider "bad news." I've never met Harry, and plan to keep it that way.

Now that the weather's good I'd like to get back to Frederick again and see you. Perhaps Jerry would let me get a look at some of Sylvia's files as well? I know they were very strict about allowing any viewings the last time I spoke with him.

Cordially,
