Dear Al,

Thanks, and thanks for the SAS, too.

Do I know that Newman! Though we never met.

He blocked 1965 publication of Whitewash by a false, prejudiced and inaccurate "peer" review of it.

He was then a former Newsweek correspondent, known to someone at that publishing house. He did not disclose to her that he was ^writing a book of his own.

That book is based upon the utterly incredible crap, that the cheap radio Oswald brought back from the USSR was his means of getting messages from ~~EMAS~~ Cuba worked into regular radio entertainment or news broadcasts from there!

The cheapest of the commercial radios in the US were adequate for that because Cuba beamed high-powered broadcasts to the whole eastern part and across the south.

More, that radio he brought back, according to the FBI, did not work anyway!

I do not recall noticing that the dust jacket said nothing about him. I have the book somewhere or gave it to Dave Wrone.

It is awful right-wing sickness. Based as are most, on preconceptions, his including the political.

Thanks and best,

Hemp

Dear Harold:

This is in response to your letter of October 9. I'd be glad to help with research on your project, though my time will be limited. I'll check into a few things and then call or write to let you let what I find.

Hope you and Lil are keeping well.

By the way, who is (or was) Albert Newman, who wrote the book "The Assassination of President John F. Kennedy" back around 1967? There's not a word of information about him on the jacket of his book, and I've never read anything about him. Nor has his book ever been reprinted. Do you know anything about him?

Sincerely,

AL
