

August 25, 1967

Dear Cardinal Cushing,

Following your statement on the Kennedy assassination and its official investigation, I sent you copies of my books. I have sought no comment from you, nor am I at all certain that now is the time for any additional comment you might feel called upon to make.

My purpose in writing is to tell you that I will be in Boston Wednesday August 30 to conduct the Steve Fredericks Show on WMBX that night. I do not know what time I'll have free, and I know that you must certainly stay very busy. However, I want very much to be able to communicate to you, directly or through one you trust, some of the things I have not yet put in my books, not yet said in public, that very much trouble me.

My wife and I have been working on this full time, some nights without sleep at all, all days much longer than most people believe one can work. I do not think there is anyone in the world who has looked into this as long, as deeply, as broadly or as intensively. I believe, deeply, that aside from all the evil inevitably associated with any such assassination, what we have here goes to the viability of our society.

I plan to reach Boston by air about the middle of the day. If it is at all possible, as soon as I learn my schedule, I will attempt to phone your secretary to see if you or anyone to whom you might want me to speak will be available. Should you desire, I presume a message can be left for me at WMBX.

If you are aware of what I do and do not do and say when I appear in public, you will know that this is in no way intended as a promotion of any sort. I assure you I neither intend this nor will so exploit it.

Sincerely yours,

Harold Weisberg
