

L.A. HERALD -
EXAMINED
2/16/67

Cushing

Doubts

JFK Story

BOSTON, March 16 (AP)—Richard Cardinal Cushing said today "I never believed" that the assassination of President John F. Kennedy "was the work of one man."

The Roman Catholic archbishop of Boston said he doesn't think the Warren Commission report on the assassination is complete. He said of the New Orleans probe, "I think they should follow it through."

Cardinal Cushing made his remarks at a news conference on plans for the Boston archdiocese.

The Cardinal implied that there are portions of the Warren Report that have not been made public. He noted that interviews and statements from world leaders about the late President for the Kennedy Memorial Library will not be public until the death of the individuals.

Cardinal Cushing also announced today he is retiring as archbishop of Boston on his 75th birthday, Aug. 24, 1970.

He confirmed earlier announcements that he will go to Peru to lead missionary work after his retirement.

Asked if he would remain in Boston with the church if the Pope requested him to, Cardinal Cushing replied: "Not as archbishop of Boston."