Dear Bob,

Re undated card, I don't know who "Mike" is but I am investigator for no Mike.

I am Ray's. I've just returned from a taxing but successful evidentiary hearing that still requires an enormous amount of work in turn requiring that I left too much other work go.

Also don't know who your man in Memphis is but I'd like a copy of the story from the Chatanooga paper, if it is not too much trouble. Might explain your card.

Except that I've even more work to do, so much that the appearance of White-wash IV is delayed, there is nothing new here. When it comes out, which should not be too long now, it will be $6.25 by mail.

The delay has been so great that the bank note is due in a week and there isn't a copy here from the printer's yet!

Lesar did a great job for a young lawyer on his first case. He carried the in-court lead very well and with not much help because the other lawyers had been too busy to learn the facts.

Spectacular for a first case.

The investigating was easy. The discovery, which set a legal precedent, was unpleasant and resisted strongly but was quite productive.

In haste, best,

Harold -

I was under the erroneous impression Lesar's nickname was Mike - my correspondent is Ted Howard in Hixson, Tenn - he came out of the blue to buy a book of mine - and here's a copy of the article - also pls find enclosed $50 to help with WW IV - I'm happy to be able to help in any way as I appreciate what you're doing - and only need 3 copies, when published, in return - cheerio
