it would appear that you found the Low photos which I've been trying to get for a long time .. they wouldn't let me come upstairs in Time-Life Bldg when I called to just look at them ~~from~~ from the lobby .. I've just read Paul's latest

many thanks for you letter w/ th instructions .. I'm not certain just how I'll proceed from spending a night with my friend in East Windsor NJ but at any rate I'll try and get to you about noonish or so .. on Tuesday and with your detailed descriptions I don't think I'll be losst on, near or under the mountain ... I'll be spending the night in DC at the Hilton so when I go out and measure the site I can say I'm a guest and please leave me alone .. it seems fairly obvious that RWR was hit long before he was shoved into the car and so that points not to Hinckley but someone else ... I'm stopping in NYC on the way down to do research in ABC's library listening to the ABC tape and seeing just when the first shot was fired ...etc etc ... so I'll have a little dope to impart when I reach you .. I have to drive home the next day because I'm in training for a sculling race mid-September and need all the mileage possible before it ... look forward to spending some time in your woods at the end of the lane, paved that goes nowhere else BUT ... cheerio
