Dear Arthur D'Amario

Thanks for your letter and the SASE

I'm disappointed that for no~~o~~ comprehensible reason NEVER AGAIN! has now been delayed again until March. Nothing I can do about it.

It is not only where you live that there was no review of Case Open. I know of none anywhere.

I'm not entirely ignored by the media. Only my work is. Reporters have spent days at a time here for me to help them.

I'm glad you like Selections. I did not make the selections but I think they were made with good judgement. They are from my first five books.

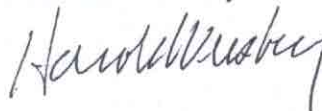

If you like Selections, I think you'll like the much lengthier originals too.

I'm not a lawyer but I've wondered often if there could be a cause of action Marina could bring. I know of none.

She can't use the Federal Torts Claims Act, as I have for other reasons, because it was not the feds who were negligent. For just about all I could think of she'd have to sue the local government agencies.

And for that would she not need "new evidence"?

Thanks and best wishes,

Harold Weisberg
