

when they attempted to enforce the rules. Post 8/28/71

Davis Plea Fails

SAN FRANCISCO — The state District Court of Appeal Friday refused to grant black militant Angela Davis a writ of habeas corpus or freedom on bail.

In a petition filed July 14, attorneys for Miss Davis asked that the appellate court overrule Superior Court Judge Richard Arnason, who had denied her bail.

The petition said Arnason's refusal to release her on bail violates her civil rights.