

grandjury which indicted her was improperly composed.

"The court does not find sufficient basis for a finding that the judges of Marin County consciously, deliberately or arbitrarily discriminated against any definable class of citizens" in selecting the grand jury, Arnason ruled.

He set for today a hearing on more pretrial motions by the defense, including one that Miss Davis' scheduled Sept. 27 trial be postponed because of the bloody Aug. 21 escape attempt at San Quentin Prison.

Yablonski Suspects

Washington, Pa.—The three of five suspects charged in the murder of United Mine Worker Joseph A. Yablonski, his wife, have been returned from Ohio, a month extra. Paul Gill, Annette, ? Silous H. brought with driver, Al Wood, who a gun, was e of the hi- Tuesday night, beaten and re- Newark. He made a house, where nts called police. Weinrich, REA administrative supervisor at rm's West Paterson office, said the truck was rrying about $426,000 in liquid gold and silver.

Angela Davis Case

SAN RAFAEL, Calif.— Judge Richard E. Arnason denied a defense motion that murder-kidnap charges against Angela Davis should be dismissed because the