

Marcuse Discusses Angela Davis Paet 11.9.71

HAMBURG, Nov. 8 (AP)— Marxist Herbert Marcuse said today that his former pupil, Angela Davis, could be acquitted of charges stemming from a California courthouse shootout if her defense attorneys can expose what he termed political motives of the prosecution.

"It's said she has two chances," Marcuse said in an interview with the news magazine Der Spiegel. "One, that international pressure will be so great that the judge and jury must pay heed. This I don't believe.
