SAN JOSE, Calif.—A 33-year-old Kansas City woman testified yesterday that she loaned her Volkswagen to Jonathan Jackson three days before the 1970 courthouse violence which the state contends was plotted by Jackson and Angela Davis.

Mabel (Mickey) Magers, who lived in San Jose at the time of the Aug. 7, 1970, shootout, said she gave the 17-year-old Jackson the keys to the car on Aug. 4. She said she did not see it again until nearly a month after the bloody incident in Marion County in which four persons died.
