Dear Mr. Davis,

Thank you for the copy of my 12/31/79 letter to Jack Wasserman with your letter of the 4th.

You have two other letters, one by me to him and one to me from him.

I'd appreciate your making an effort to locate and provide copies of them.

I'm glad you have learned what I told you at the outset of this long effort required to get back only part of what you did and I presume still do have, that my Stevens sent these pages to you.

There was no other possibility because nobody else had worked in those files.

I have not alleged that she did it purposefully. I have no reason to believe that she did.

Please make a further check so I can have a complete file, particularly because of what you said about that relationship.

Sincerely,

Harold Weisberg

Dear Mr. Weisberg,

I have finally gotten around to filing away the source material on which my book, MAFIA KINGFISH, is based. In one of the folders for Part VII I found the enclosed letter from you to Mr. Jack Wasserman. I recall that it was included in a batch of xeroxed FBI documents related to the JFK assassination located in your files by researcher Amy Stevens. Specifically the documents were concerned with certain allegations made about Carlos Marcello and members of his family and associates.

Yours Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "John H. Davis". The signature is written in a cursive style with a large, stylized "J" and "D".

John H. Davis

Enclosure

Dear Mr. Wasserman,

12/31/79

The attached records are from the FBI's 62-109060 file, on the assassination of President Kennedy. There are identified by their serial numbers: 5241, 5232, 5203, 5274, 5295, 5334, 5589, 5815, 5818, and what is known as a Not Recorded Serial, because it is a duplicate of a record that is "recorded" in another file, the Jones to Wick memo of 6/2/67. (In this case the man file identification was eliminated in the FBI's xeroxing. Likely on the book or author.) These people were, I believe, in the DeLoach office.

Together with xeroxes I sent you earlier these are all the records I have seen that relate, directly or indirectly, to the matter of the House assassins committee. And, of course, its irresponsibilities.

It has been some time since I read these records. My intention was to review them after I made copies for my own subject filing and to prepare a memo relating to them. I'm sorry that has not been possible.

Because this is not now possible and because I will be in Washington on the 4th, with transportation, I'll deliver these then.

These come from an extensive file, one of three rather large ones totalling close to 100,000 pages. I obtained them as a result of C.A. 77-2155. They are now in the public domain. This means that anyone who makes an appointment in advance can go to the FBI's public reading room and examine them. If he can find them among 100,000 unindexed pages.

From the examination I have made to date of the third of these files, styled an Oswald file, I do not expect to find more records that may interest you. I've gone through the entire "commission" and "assassination" files.

The marks added represent indexing ^{and} instructions. There are "main files" on a subject and "see" references.

It is not impossible that the Oswald file will have references to some of the matters misrepresented and misused by the assassins committee. If so I will probably come to them.

Sincerely,

Harold Weisberg
