Information which you have furnished concerning the investigation being conducted by New Orleans District Attorney James C. Garrison in connection with the assassination of President Kennedy indicates that Garrison has shown an interest in a Cuban refugee training camp near New Orleans which was operated by Richard Rudolph Davis in the summer of 1963. Garrison reportedly believes that some of the individuals affiliated with the camp were involved in the assassination of President Kennedy and that Lee Harvey Oswald was at the camp.

We note that your investigation of the assassination disclosed no information indicating that Oswald had any contact with Davis or the anti-Castro organization which Davis represented in New Orleans, the Movimiento Democratica Cristiano, and that data concerning an alleged training camp, including a report of an October 1, 1963 interview with Davis, was disseminated to the Warren Commission. During this interview, Davis advised that in early 1963 he made friends with persons in the lumber business in Guatemala with whom he formed a Louisiana corporation, the Guatemala Lumber and Mineral Corporation, and served as its Vice-President. Davis said that in the summer of 1963 some 19 men were recruited from Miami through a representative of the Movimiento Democratica Cristiano for the purpose of being trained in this lumber cutting operation. He added that when the men learned they were to work in a lumber industry and were not recruited for a military operation they became disenchanted and returned to Miami.

Davis gave a somewhat different account of the origins of the training camp during a subsequent interview on July 14, 1967, set forth in a Bureau memorandum dated July 17, 1967 at Houston, Texas, captioned "Assassination of John Fitzgerald Kennedy, November 22, 1963, Miscellaneous - Information Concerning." He stated that he set up a training site for exiled Cubans on the DeLaBarre Estate, Lacombe, Louisiana with the assistance of John Birch Society members and occasionally afforded prominent and wealthy John Birch Society members a demonstration "of the training activities" after which he would receive a financial contribution for "the training program." Davis also stated during this interview that he met Lee Harvey Oswald on two occasions during 1963, once while Oswald was passing out literature on the street and another time at Oswald's apartment during which he attempted, without success, to obtain information about Oswald's pro-Cuban activities. Davis claimed that he has refused to discuss his activities with Garrison's investigators, but admitted that in approximately March 1967 he was paid $500 by Time-Life to show reporters the training site and that 190 photographs were taken for an article on the Garrison probe.

We are aware from earlier information which you have furnished concerning Davis that he has been variously described as "a promoter and a hustler" who "will do anything for money and is often carried away with his own thinking"; however, in view of his somewhat conflicting statements about the origins of his training camp, we would appreciate receiving any additional information you may have in your files concerning the Guatemala Lumber and Mineral Corporation and its other officers with whom Davis claimed to be associated. In this connection, attached is a copy of the Articles of Incorporation of the Corporation which we obtained from the office of the Secretary of State of Louisiana. The officers listed on page six are substantially the same as those mentioned by Davis in his October 1, 1963 interview with the Bureau and are as follows:

With regard to Joseph R. Milla, departmental files contain a Bureau report of Special Agent Warren C. de Brueys dated March 16, 1959 at New Orleans captioned, "Unsub, Nicaraguan Male, Unsub, aka J. Milla, Jr., Export Manager, Apson Enterprises, Dr. Albert Aparicio, Internal Security - Nicaragua, Registration Act - Nicaragua", which reflects that on February 29, 1960 one J. Milla, Jr., who described himself as export manager of the Apson Enterprises, P. O. Box 187, New Orleans, requested price quotations on a large quantity of various war surplus goods from Roland's, Inc. in New Orleans. Information from the Immigration and Naturalization Service file of one Jose Roberto Milla, Alien Registration No. 6014222, born February 7, 1910 at Guatemala City, Guatemala, is also set forth in this report, but it was not definitely established that he was identical with the individual who had requested the price quotations.

All directors shall be of the same class and they shall hold office and exercise all the functions of the Board until the next annual meeting of the shareholders and/or until their successors are duly elected and qualified as hereinabove provided. The failure to elect directors shall not dissolve the corporation, but the directors in office at the time of such failure to elect shall hold their respective offices until the election shall be held after fifteen (15) days' notice is served on each shareholder of record entitled to vote by depositing said notice in the United States mail, postage prepaid. Any director absent from the meeting may be represented by any other director or shareholder, who may cast the vote of the absent director according to the written instructions, general or special, of said absent director. A director need not be a stockholder. A majority of the Board of Directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, and each director shall be entitled to one vote in person or by proxy, as aforementioned.

The Board may, without the necessity of submitting its actions to the shareholders, sell or exchange any or all of the property of the corporation, borrow money, execute bonds, notes and/or obligations therefor and secure the same by mortgage, pledge and hypothecation of the property of the corporation to any individual or to another corporation, or merge or consolidate this corporation with any such corporation; may fix the price and consideration of such sale, exchange, merger or consolidation and take and receive in exchange for the assets of this corporation, the stock or other securities of such purchasing, merging or consolidation corporation.

Subject to the rights of the shareholders at any time to change same, the Board of Directors may adopt and from time to time repeal, amend and supplement by-laws containing any provision with respect to the government of the corporation and the powers of the directors and shareholders not prohibited by law and not inconsistent with these articles, and may appoint an Executive Committee and such other committees of the Board of Directors and define their respective powers and duties.

In the event of a vacancy occurring for any cause in the said Board of Directors, the vacancy shall be filled by election at a meeting of the stockholders entitled to vote at a meeting called for that purpose.

ARTICLE V

The office of Secretary and Treasurer and/or Vice-President and Treasurer may be combined and filled by the same person. The officers shall hold office until their successors have been elected and qualified.

The election of officers shall be at a special meeting of the Board of Directors called for that purpose after the new Board of Directors is selected in October of each year as set forth hereinabove. All such officers and agents appointed and elected shall be subject to the orders of and be removable by the authority appointing them.

ARTICLE VI

At all meetings of the shareholders, whether to elect a Board of Directors or for other purposes, each shareholder shall be entitled to one vote for each share of voting stock standing in his name on the books of the corporation, to be cast by him in person or by his written proxy. A majority of the voting stock shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business; and a majority of the votes cast shall suffice to prevail. Failure to elect a Board on the date specified or at any adjournment of said meeting shall not impair the management of the corporation, and the Board then in office shall continue to function until its successor is elected and qualified.

Any director may be removed at any time by the action of the holders of a majority of the voting stock taken at special or regular stockholders meeting. Notice of meetings of shareholders for any purpose shall be in writing, postage prepaid and addressed to each voting shareholder at his address of record, not less than fifteen (15) days prior to the day named for such meeting, the shares present or represented by written proxy, and entitled to vote, may be voted vive voce, unless otherwise decided by the majority vote of the shares present or represented at such meeting.

[REDACTED] Davis [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] had been previously questioned by the FBI in connection with a training camp that was being run by Cuban had found a cache of dynamite on the other side of the lake from New Orleans which was in the general vicinity of the aforementioned camp.

[REDACTED]
[REDACTED] Davis claimed he was with the Christian Democratic Movement, an anti-Castro group.

Davis, was questioned regarding an alleged anti-Castro training camp across the lake from New Orleans, and Davis advised that some 19 men had been sent [REDACTED] from Miami, Florida, to New Orleans in response to a request by Davis to send some men who might work for him in a lumber company business with which he was connected in Guatemala. Davis said unfortunately these men when they arrived in Louisiana, for some reason or another, had come to New Orleans with the idea that they were going to be trained for a military operation and sent to Guatemala for additional training. He claimed on October 1, 1963, that when he advised these men of the military purpose of their travel to New Orleans they were disappointed and some were angry with him. At that time he advised that the corporation with which he was connected at that time was known as the Guatemalan Lumber and Mineral Corporation. He said that this was a Louisiana corporation that had a contract with the Guatemalan Government to take mahogany out of Guatemala. He identified the officers of this corporation as follows:

- Joseph Milla, President (a Guatemalan);
- Gus de la Barre, Vice President;

Rudolph Richard Davis, Jr., Vice President;

Davis mentioned that during the last days of July, 1963, the FBI had seized some dynamite and other explosives stored in a Lacombe, Louisiana, residence which material, according to the newspaper, was to be used against Cuba. He stated that this action disturbed these Cuban refugees and was probably partially responsible for their decision to return to Miami. It was Davis' story on October 1, 1963, that since these men had come to the New Orleans area with the idea of receiving military training and additional military training in Guatemala, they were not willing to proceed to Guatemala to be employed in mahogany lumber cutting. For this reason their passage on Greyhound Bus to return to Miami was paid for by the Guatemalan Lumber and Mineral Corporation of New Orleans, Louisiana. Davis in October, 1963, made the statement that he had no intention of giving those people any military training or in using them in any military adventure against Cuba.

RUDOLPH RICHARD DAVIS, JR. interviewed 10/1/63 and advised he had requested a number of men from a friend in Miami for the purpose of employing them at a lumber camp in Guatemala being operated by a firm in New Orleans with which DAVIS is associated. DAVIS claims these refugees came to New Orleans with the understanding they were going to be sent to a military training camp in New Orleans and in Guatemala and upon learning the truth that they were to be hired for the cutting of lumber in Guatemala, they were disappointed. DAVIS states all refugees who had come to New Orleans from Miami returned to Miami within a two-week period. (u)
