

Dear Ed,

4/11/75

Here is Crazy Sherman's crazy suit back. Did you just happen to come across it or is he up to something again?

He has in it only those papers I'd let another have to help me, one who trusted Sherman to "help." I have their correspondence on this after Sherman stole and ruined ~~thing~~ <sup>it</sup> ~~me~~. ~~That~~ really is a crazy thing he did.

Especially legally and factually.

Fortunately, I had not given my friend more of my files, so Skolnick could steal only those papers this friend had.

Thanks for telling me what I missed. I'm into so much and stay so tired I remember poorly. I should not have forgotten Adams. It just didn't register.

From the non-reporting hereabouts it would seem that your police domestic spying story is quiet. I suppose there will be suits. And more attention.

Something has happened to WBBM's signal. Perhaps when they are all news and that news is largely local they are no longer clear channel. I don't hear them any more.

I have transferred my (while shaving) news business of the early a.m. to a Westinghouse station in Phila.

Thanks and best,
