

T.P.
AUGUST 20, 1968

SECTIO

Cubans Picket Near N.J. Jail

BELVIDRE, N.J. (AP) — about 25 Cubans wearing GI steel helmets and fatigue uniforms picketed the jail here Sunday in support of a self-proclaimed anti-Castro Cuban arrested after police said they found an arsenal on his farm.

They marched peacefully for 2½ hours carrying signs, the American flag and the Cuban flag in support of Michael A. Decarolis, a 32-year-old farmer arrested last Tuesday night. FBI agents and state and local police said they found a sub-machine gun, 1,000 pounds of dynamite, several rifles and pistols, tear gas and a 50-mm mortar on Decarolis' farm.

Juan Mas Sarda of Lake Hiawatha and Oscar Acevedo of Brooklyn, N.Y., spokesmen for the marchers, contended the guns belonged to the Cubans and not to Decarolis. Police said they told them that they had contacted Decarolis several years ago about using his farm for weekend maneuvers. He agreed and joined their cause, they said.