GOD
on a

Battlewagon

by Capt. Jas. V. Claypool

Chaplain, U.S.N.R., as told to Carl Wiegman

MORE than a war story and more than the thrilling story of a chaplain's work with men on the famous Battleship X, now known to be the South Dakota, this is the story America has been waiting for—the story of faith triumphant over pain and fear and the utter loneliness of the war at sea. Here, in one gripping human incident after another is a stirring tribute to our boys in blue and the men of the Chaplain Corps. The foreword was written by Rear Admiral Thomas Leigh Gatch, formerly Captain of the famous South Dakota.

CAPT. CLAYPOOL

"Frequently men asked:
"What do you think Christ
would do in this war?" "

"I always answered them by asking another question:

"What do you think Christ
would have done if He had come upon the robbers beating up the traveler on the Jericho road . . . do you think He would have stood idly by, watching the beating?" "

Thus spoke this calm, courageous Navy Chaplain to the eager American boys on the South Dakota, who were helping to "clean up the Jericho road." A faith-inspiring, triumphant book.
