

UNIVERSITY OF DELAWARE

LECTURE-MEDIA SERIES

WINTER SESSION - 1977

MURDER MOST HIGH: THE CRIME OF ASSASSINATION. A series of films and speakers scheduled in connection with Criminal Justice 267. The series focuses on the most shocking of all crimes, the murder of an exalted leader. The programs will examine the character of the act itself and the personalities of the victim and his assassin. The crimes will be projected into the appropriate historical period and the state of sophistication of criminal justice at the time.

FILMS

Professor John Kelly will introduce each film and use additional audiovisual media in connection with the crimes under discussion. These featured film programs are scheduled at

11:30 A.M. in 004 KIRKBRIDE HALL

- | | | |
|---------|----|--|
| JANUARY | 5 | Alexander the Great |
| | 7 | Julius Caesar |
| | 11 | Macbeth |
| | 17 | The Assassination of Lincoln |
| | 19 | The Assassination of King Alexander of Yugoslavia |
| | 20 | All the King's Men |

FIELD TRIP TO

WASHINGTON, D.C., JANUARY 13-14

Visit to places in Washington, D.C. associated with assassinations (Capitol, Ford's Theatre, Blair House, etc.) and to The National Archives to see the Zapruder film showing of the actual assassination of President Kennedy. Interested students are urged to contact Professor Kelly for further information and sign-up.

LECTURES AND FILMS

JANUARY 27-28

Programs at 8:00 P.M., Student Center, Bacchus

BOTH DAYS: DETECTIVE M. N. McDONALD, Dallas Police Department, who apprehended Lee Harvey Oswald, comments on the character of an assassin. MRS. RUTH HYDE PAYNE, a close personal friend of the Oswald family, comments on the character of the assassin as a family man.

Plus film showings on January 27 of Mark Lane's Rush to Judgment and on January 28 of John F. Kennedy, A History of Our Times.