Daley's TV Show Scheduled Tonight

From News Dispatches

CHICAGO, Sept. 14 — The official Chicago version of disturbances during the Democratic National Convention will be broadcast Sunday over radio and television stations from Hawaii to London.

The one-hour program was produced by the city after Mayor Richard J. Daley argued that network telecasts during the convention week gave a one-sided portrayal of the situation.

More than 100 television stations and 1000 radio stations will air the program.

[The show will be presented at 9 p.m. in Washington over WTTG-TV, Channel 5.]

The film, "What Trees do They Plant?" was prepared during the past four days by the Henry Ushijimi Film Co. of suburban Park Ridge with the assistance of city workers and WGN Continental Broadcasting Co. of Chicago, which lent technical assistance and station facilities. The film was put together from pictures taken by the Police Department, National Guardsmen and network and local television cameramen.

Producers of the film estimate it will reach about 80 per cent of the people in the United States.

Daley requested "equal time" from Columbia Broadcasting System the National Broadcasting Co. and American Broadcasting Co. for his side of the story and was turned down. But 25 affiliates each of NBC and CBS and 22 of ABC will air the program. Four stations affiliated with the National Educational Television Network will air the show, as will the five Metro-media network stations and 25 independent stations.

The show also will be seen in Windsor, Ont., over CKLW-TV and will be telecast by the British Broadcasting Co.

Church Council Charges Police Abuse Force

HOUSTON, Sept. 14 (AP) — The general board of the National Council of Churches says police in some of the nation's cities have abused force to suppress lawful assembly and legitimate protest.

In concluding a two-day policy-making conference yesterday, the board approved a resolution which said, "In certain instances the use of police force has seemed clearly to indicate a deliberate policy of intimidation by indiscriminate violence."

The board, which represents 33 Protestant, Anglican and Orthodox denominations, made no direct reference to any police force.

"There are instances where the police have provoked and even initiated violence, venting their fury on blacks, hippies, students, newsmen, passive bystanders or unresisting arrestees," the report said.

One part of the resolution calls for an investigation of the policy in any city where a unit of the national council might hold a meeting.

A spokesman said the organization's annual Christian education meeting scheduled next February in Chicago may be changed to another city because of the resolution, which was adopted unanimously.
