By Drew Pearson and Jack Anderson

821 bound for Hartford, Conn., was already five minutes late. "This thing is getting out of But the engines were revved up, and finally it started to sit down and settle it."

"This thing is getting out of hand," Powell said. "We ought to sit down and settle it."

"This thing is getting out of hand," Powell said. "We ought to sit down and settle it."

"Democrats and rabble-rabbledown the runway. Suddenly the engines cut off, and the plane ground to a halt.

Over the loudspeaker the Privately the stewardess

The plane did go back, and the loading ramp was wheeled self sat in the Chairman's seat Act into law, Lester stood in at the microphone alternately up to the door. Who should smiling benignly. The ecumen front of his restaurant branenter but Sen. Tom Dodd of Connecticut.

tee meeting on Adam Clayton Rep. William Ayres (R-Ohio). against Powell.

Nothing of this sort oc-and telephoned Rep. Frank Democrats. Hawkins is Thompson (D-N.J.), one of the Negro. anti-Powell leaders but per-Allegheny Airlines Flight sonally friendly toward the Ax-Handle Government Chairman.

That night in Washington, rouser right wingers. Thompson and Jim O'Hara of confided, "Nothing like this the Committee rules which the Committee next day adopted, 27 to 1.

All this was why Powell himical spirit prevailed.

Most interesting secret inci-NOTE—In the past the dent was the fact that Rep. dles—provided by the restauther were no differences between them. What the public ford courtesy of United Air- Republican from Alabama, at groes who sought to enter his didn't know, however, was reactors for whom he did favors. Since the Senate ethics investigation he has been flylace, the Alabama Democrat, their favor. was on the other end of the Inside the Powell Debate line. Obviously he gave his Reclosed his restaurant and since During the closed Commit-publican friend from Alabama then has been up to his ears tee meeting on Adam Clayton a few pointers on politics, in politics.

Powell, Republican Congress-namely that you didn't win In the men kept coming out and stat- votes in Alabama by being proing before the TV cameras that Negro. Rep. Andrews came ported by the Ku Klux Klan, inside was a Roman holiday. back to the Committee room, the Georgia rednecks, and se-"It's a blood bath," declared immediately led the wolf pack cretly by some members of the the first time Negroes had NOTE - The three Commitcurred. The inside story is tee members who abstained Senator, is friendly to Arnali bled about having to identify that the day before the Com- from voting were Powell, Phil- but can't seem to control his it publicly.

Most important primary in ate Democrats and rabble-

The two factions of the Michigan worked until late Democratic Party are led by with Powell and two of his former Gov. Ellis Arnall, first former Gov. Ellis Arnall, first captain announced: "Sorry to inconvenience you, but we (N.Y.) and Rep. John Dent the poll tax; and Lester Madhave to go back to pick up a passenger."

while Tower and two or an inconvenience over the friends — Rep. Hugh Carey Southern Governor to repeal the poll tax; and Lester Madhave to go back to pick up a passenger."

while Tower and two or an inconvenience over this Arnan, instance of the poll tax; and Lester Madhave to go back to pick up a passenger." who bucked the Supreme Court set of Committee rules which regarding the desegregation of his eating place.

On July 3, 1964, one day after Johnson signed the Civil Rights New York. The two took turns dishing a pistol and urging white patrons to use ax han-

In the present runoff for The next year Reagan Governor, Maddox will be sup-balked a second time and Talmadge machine.

Herman Talmadge, an able mittee meeting Adam got wor- lip Burton and Augustus Haw- cohorts. They are secretly ried about all the bad publicity kins, the latter two California knifing him.

The issue for Georgians-if the moderates are defeated today-will be either a Republican administration or "ax-- after

Ronald Reagan Balks

One untold but carefully documented story of Ronald Reagan's strange march along the path of politics concerns his emceeing of the Pasadena Rose Bowl Parade.

This he did annually in conjunction with Miss Bess Myerson, a former Miss America. Mrs. Arnold Grant of now announcing floats.

Both did well, and as far as the public was concerned, asked Bess Myerson to announce. It was his turn, but he passed it on to her with the explanation that he didn't believe in Savings Bonds.

asked Miss Myerson to announce a Negro float. It was entered a float in the Rose Bowl Parade, and he grum-

Miss Myerson obliged. @ 1966, Bell-McClure 9