Ex-Aide to Dodd Denies Anderson Report of Gun

NEWINGTON, Conn., June Barbarette, who is now news 23 (AP)—The former public director of WPOP Radio, said relations director for the late the senator did request a piston. Thomas J. Dodd (D. Conn.) today labeled as "a tol from the gun collection of the Senator did request a piston. lie" columnist Jack Ander-son's report that Dodd carried which Dodd was chairman. a pistol onto the floor of the "But, on the morning of the Senate the day he was cen-censure vote, with Mrs. Dodd sured in 1967.

taking a grain of truth, mixing friend and adviser, Lee Grills, it with a ton of lies and distor- took the pistol from the sena-Barbarette.

Anderson said Dodd's aides day or any other day." feared the senator contemthe Senate floor, realizing that a re-election bid in 1970 and a censure vote was inevitable. died last year.

cheap, vicious and bold-faced the Senate's Juvenile Delinand the senator's son, Gerry, "Anderson has succeeded in in his office, another close tions, and coming up with another disgraceful example of yellow journalism," said Joe the floor of the Senate that

Dodd, censured for allegedly plated taking his own life on misusing campaign funds, lost