

( I RTMENT OF THE TREAS : UNITED STATES SECRET SERVICE WASHINGTON, D.C. 20223

MEMORANDUM TO:  From:  Subject: Intelligence Review Coordination—Probe of JFK Assassination  In response to your memorandum of April 5, 1975, to this is to advise that the Secret Service has only two requests under the Freedom of Information Act for material concerning the assassination of President Kennedy and the Warren Commission's findings.  These letters, from  Ind Mark Lane, are attached.  Lane and have written books and treatises on the Warren Commission's findings since the Warren Commission's reports were published.  Is mainly concerned with the trajectory of the bullets and the "one bullet" theory concerning the wound of John Connally and the wound suffered by President Kennedy from the same bullet.  Indicately engaged in the present controversy concerning the reopening of the investigation.  The replies to these letters have been coordinated will the Office of Chief Counsel. Essentially we have denied Mark Lane any information and referred him to the Archives to which he indicated addressed his inquiry. In the case of this platostatic copies of some documents which we had previously farnition the Commission and which are in the Archives available to be that source.
Subject: Intelligence Review Coordination—Probe of JFK Assassination  In response to your memorandum of April 5, 1975, to this is to advise that the Secret Service has only two requests under the Freedom of Information Act for material concerning the assassination of President Kennedy and the Warren Commission's findings.  These letters from hid Mark Lane, are attached.  Lane and have written books and treatises on the Warren Commission's findings since the Warren Commission's reports were published.  With the trajectory of the bullets and the "one bullet" theory concerning the wound of John Connally and the wound suffered by President Kennedy from the same bullet.  And is actively engaged in the present controversy concerning the reopening of the investigation.  The replies to these letters have been coordinated will the Office of Chief Counsel. Essentially we have decied Mark Lane any information and referred him to the Archives to which he had also addressed his inquiry. In the case described we had previously farmished the Commission and which are in the Archives available to be sent this platostatic copies of some documents which we had previously farmished the Commission and which are in the Archives available to be	, and a	April 7, 1975
In response to your memorandum of April 5, 1975, to this is to advise that the Secret Service has only two requests under the Freedom of Information Act for material concerning the assassination of President Kennedy and the Warren Commission's findings.  These letters, from hd Mark Lane, are attached.  Lane and have written books and treatises on the Warren Commission's findings since the Warren Commission's reports were published.  Is mainly concerned with the trajectory of the bullets and the "one bullet" theory concerning the wound of John Connally and the wound suffered by President Kennedy from the same bullet.  And is actively engaged in the present controversy concerning the reopening of the investigation.  The replies to these letters have been coordinated with the Office of Chief Counsel. Essentially we have denied Mark Lane any information and referred him to the Archives to which he had also addressed his inquiry. In the case described to the commission and which are in the Archives available to the commission and which are in the Archives available to the commission and which are in the Archives available to the commission and which are in the Archives available to the commission and which are in the Archives available to the commission and which are in the Archives available to the commission and which are in the Archives available to the commission and which are in the Archives available to the commission and which are in the Archives available to the commission and the commi		MEMORANDUM TO:
In response to your memorandum of April 5, 1975, to this is to advise that the Secret Service has only two requests under the Freedom of Information Act for material concerning the assassination of President Kennedy and the Warren Commission's findings.  These letters from the Mark Lane, are attached.  Lane and have written books and treatises on the Warren Commission's findings since the Warren Commission's reports were published.  with the trajectory of the bullets and the "one bullet" theory concerning the wound of John Connally and the wound suffered by President Kennedy from the same bullet.  The replies to these letters have been coordinated with the Office of Chief Counsel. Essentially we have dealed Mark Lane any information and referred him to the Archives to which he had also addressed his inquiry. In the case of the previously formising the Commission and which are in the Archives available to the commission and which are in the Archives available to the commission and which are in the Archives available to the commission and which are in the Archives available to the commission and which are in the Archives available to the commission and which are in the Archives available to the commission and which are in the Archives available to the commission and which are in the Archives available to the commission and which are in the Archives available to the commission and which are in the Archives available to the commission and which are in the Archives available to the commission and which are in the Archives available to the commission and which are in the Archives available to the commission and which are in the Archives available to the commission and the commissio	9	From :
this is to advise that the Secret Service has only two requests under the Freedom of Information Act for material concerning the assassination of President Kennedy and the Warren Commission's findings.  These letters, from high the Warren Commission's findings.  These letters, from high the Warren Commission's reports were published.  Lane and have written books and treatises on the Warren Commission's findings since the Warren Commission's reports were published.  With the trajectory of the bullets and the "one bullet" theory concerning the wound of John Connally and the wound suffered by President Kennedy from the same bullet.  Indicate the same bullet.  The replies to these letters have been coordinated with the Office of Chief Counsel. Essentially we have decided Marit Lane any information and referred him to the Archives to which he had also addressed his inquiry. In the case described he sent him photostatic copies of some documents which we had previously furnished the Commission and which are in the Archives available to be a sent him photostatic copies of some documents which we had previously furnished the Commission and which are in the Archives available to be a sent him photostatic copies of some documents which we had previously furnished the Commission and which are in the Archives available to be a sent him photostatic copies of some documents which we had previously furnished the Commission and which are in the Archives available to be a sent him photostatic copies of some documents which we had previously furnished the Commission and which are in the Archives available to be a sent him photostatic copies of some documents which we had previously furnished the Commission and which are in the Archives available to be a sent him photostatic copies of some documents which we had previously furnished the Commission and which are in the Archives available to be a sent him photostatic copies of some documents which we had previously furnished the commission and which are in the Archives available to	983	그는 100 전에 가장 그는 그는 100 전에 가장
Lane and have written books and treatises on the Warren Commission's findings since the Warren Commission's reports were published.  With the trajectory of the bullets and the "one bullet" theory concerning the wound of John Connally and the wound suffered by President Kennedy from the same bullet.  And is actively engaged in the present controversy concerning the reopening of the investigation.  The replies to these letters have been coordinated with the Office of Chief Counsel. Essentially we have desied Mark Lane any information and referred him to the Archives to which he had also addressed his inquiry. In the case described to the sent him places static copies of some documents which we had previously furnished the Commission and which are in the Archives available to the commission and which are in the Archives available to the commission and which are in the Archives available to the commission and which are in the Archives available to the commission and which are in the Archives available to the commission and which are in the Archives available to the commission and which are in the Archives available to the control of the commission and which are in the Archives available to the control of t		this is to advise that the Secret Service has only two requests under the Freedom of Information Act for material concerning the assassination of President Kennedy and the Warren Commission's findings.  These letters, from
The replies to these letters have been coordinated with the Office of Chief Counsel. Essentially we have desied Mark Lane any information and referred him to the Archives to which he had also addressed his inquiry. In the case of the photostatic copies of some documents which we had previously furnished the Commission and which are in the Archives available to the commission and which are in the Archives available to the commission and which are in the Archives available to the commission and which are in the Archives available to the commission and which are in the Archives available to the commission and which are in the Archives available to the commission and which are in the Archives available to the commission and which are in the Archives available to the commission and which are in the Archives available to the commission and the commission and the commission and the commission are considered to the commission and the commission are commission.		Lane and have written books and treatises on the Warren Commission's findings since the Warren Commission's reports were published.  with the trajectory of the bullets and the "one bullet" theory concerning the wound of John Connally and the wound suffered by President
The replies to these letters have been coordinated with the Office of Chief Counsel. Essentially we have desied Mark Lane any information and referred him to the Archives to which he had also addressed his inquiry. In the case of the sent him photostatic copies of some documents which we had previously furnished the Commission and which are in the Archives available to the commission and which are in the Archives available to the commission and which are in the Archives available to the commission and which are in the Archives available to the commission and which are in the Archives available to the commission and which are in the Archives available to the commission and which are in the Archives available to the commission and which are in the Archives available to the commission and the commission and which are in the Archives available to the commission and the commissio	E
		The replies to these letters have been coordinated will the Office of Chief Counsel. Essentially we have decied Mark Lane any information and referred him to the Archives to which he had also addressed his inquiry. In the case described the sent him photostatic copies of some documents which we had previously furnished the Commission and which are in the Archives available to