Dear Mr. Goldsmith,

You paid me too much for the book.

The price I quoted, $10.00, included postage and insurance.

I did not think of this when you said you'd send a check by Federal Express.
(Your people used Emory.)

I had the book wrapped and waiting for the driver so you should have it if not tomorrow, by Monday.

However, I did not want to delay him. So, I mail you our check for $2.00.

Not knowing what bookkeeping there may have been by the time you get this I make the check out to you.

Best wishes,

Harold Weisberg
