result of an 11-month investigation by the California Department of Justice's Organized Crime and Criminal Intelligence Branch, the Santa Clara county district attornev's office and the San Jose Police Department, according to William P. Hoffman, a Santa Clara county assistant district attorney.

The report includes a rambling, 96-page interview with Ducote in which he admits 17 burglaries, most of them committed in 1966 and 1967.

His targets, Ducote told investigators, included the Delano office of the United Farm Workers, Ramparts Magazine" both the Carmel home and Chicago office of radical organizer Saul Alinsky, San Francisco's American-Russian Institute and the People's World(a Communist Party newspaper), the San Jose office of leftleaning lawyer the San Jose headquarters of Catholic Social Justice, and numerous anti-Vietnam War groups in San Jose, Oakland and Berkeley.

The admissions emerged during a tape-recorded interview last February 14 with Walter Kubas, special agent of the State Department of Justice.

His accomplices in many of the break-ins, Ducote said, were Andy Gulermovichingw living in Salinas, and Henry Scherling, now a resident of Cour d'Alene, Idaho.

Ducote told Agent Kubas that he resigned from the Santa Clara sheriff's department in 1963 and. that same year, was elected president of the county's Young Republican Club.

At a Republican meeting, he met Kenneth Wilhelm, then the secretary of the Santa Clara County Farm Bureau, who offered him an $800-a-month job to ferret out radicals.

Three years later, the burglariss cropped up throughout North-ern California. (Investigators corroborated most of the break-ins, according to the report.)

Piles of stolen documents were turned over to Wilhelm, now a Peninsula schoolteacher, according to the interi

All case pa Rep-Gibroytin Wa and turned over copies of the puripined documents to the House Committee on Un-American Activities.

The committee's chief investigator and a Central Intelligence Agency Congressional liaison man asked for copies of all future documents, Ducote clidined. die said he did not tell anyone in Washington how he got the files.)

Ducote's two closest shay came in Delano and in Francisco, he said.

During one burglary of group that worked closely with Cesar Chavez, Ducote's and Scherling's rented auto license was copied .

Several days later, Scherifing surrendered to the San Jose police. After Ducote told a Delane policeman that the purpose of the break-in was to prove Chaven's links to the Communist Party, the investigation was dropped, Ducote. said

In San Francisco, Ducote said he waited near the People's World office at 81 Clementina alley for "three or four nights" to obtain a copy of the Committinist newspaper's subscription list.

When the subscription line were dumped into a trash can, Ducote would up in an unait struggle with an FBI agent, a Sam Francisco policeman and an Army Intelligence agent over them

The policeman won, Duceto said, after be threatened to arrest Ducote and the other two investigators. 15

Ducote and his accomplices cannot be charged with ! burgiaries themselves, according to Assistant District Attorney Hoffman, because there is a threeyear statute of limitations on th prosecution of this crime.

However, Ducote was accused of grand theft because, within the past year, he persuaded 14 prominent San Jose busineuronen to aid him in his fight to link Chavez to the Communist Party.

When the businessmen learned that Ducote did little or no investigating with these funds, they complained to the district attorney's office, triggering the investigation.

The extern seven felony charges, Hoffman said, stem from Ducote's immung onto purle documents. He is also accu ed seven counts of concealing stolen property.
