Dear Harold:

Thanks very much for your kind letter of August 1st. Believe me, any insults from the likes of you are the highest of compliments.

Since the Report of 1939 of the Committee on Education and Labor ("Violations of Free Speech and the Rights of Labor") is available in so many libraries and institutions, how come it can't be found in the New York City libraries? Great God, man, have you not noticed that your work was being suppressed even way back then, 32 years ago?

By the way, have you read THE ASSASSINATION OF JOHN F. KENNEDY: THE REASONS WHY by Albert H. Newman (Potter, $10)? I think it's a great book.

Back in 1966 you gave an interview to Underground (see attached sheet). Did the publisher ever send you a copy? If you don't have one, I'll xerox a copy for you. No catch, no obligation.

Do you remember being on a Washington, D. C. tv program with Mark Lane? John Hightower's Checkpoint 14. I understand that during one of the commercials you and Lane had a bit off a tiff. You accused Mark of cribbing material from your book and called him a whore. Mark said that if you continued with stuff like that, he'd punch you in the mouth (or was it the nose?). Can you tell me if this incident (a bit abridged above) is accurate--I'd like to refer to it in my next article. Is this a frame-up, too? I have Hightower's letter about this and would like to get your side of the story.

Stick around--I'll have more news next time.
