Dear Mr. Durkin:

I have just spoken with my husband on the telephone from California and he asks that I acknowledge your letter to him of November 9, with which you enclosed photocopies of two stories which appeared in print some years ago. As of now expects to be home the night of the 21st.

The 1940 affair was a frame-up. The Examiner story seems to be somewhat less than accurate. As for the speech at a Forum meeting in San Francisco last December, as I recall it was originally under different auspices; however, there was no remuneration of any kind, nor any reimbursement of expenses. This is for your information.

My husband suggests that, in the interest of accuracy, you might want to delay your article until you can discuss these matters fully with him. He will be glad to go into detail with you.

Sincerely,

Lillian Weisberg
