Dear Mr. Weisberg:

Thank you for your letters received while I was away from the office. In response to the position you have taken, I recently met with David Outerbridge and Mr. Hamilton, and based on this discussion, will reply to your letters within a short time.

I certainly want to resolve the advance royalty problem as soon as possible and, hopefully, the letter I will mail to you shortly will do just that.

Sincerely,

Ivor A. Whitson
Executive Vice President
