Dear Mr. Weisberg:

This letter will confirm that FRAME-UP, which was published by Outerbridge & Dienstfrey (a wholly owned subsidiary of Dutton) is out of print, and inasmuch as we do not have any plans for further editions of the work, this letter formally relinquishes to you all rights granted to Outerbridge & Dienstfrey under the publishing contract dated August 7, 1970. Dutton is attaching a copy of this letter to the contract, which we have marked "Cancelled", and we suggest that you do the same. The warranties expressed in paragraph 6 of the contract shall survive termination however.

The reversion herein is subject to any and all grants previously made on this title for your account.

Copyright was registered in your name and I enclose Copyright Certificate No. A 285632 for your safekeeping.

Very truly yours,

I. A. Whitson
