

JFC:msb

1

NY 89-75

WILLEM OLTMANS, Dutch Freelande Writer had previously stated that one BEN VAN MEERENDONK (phonetic), a representative of Dutch Television at New York telephone number 212-875-2105 possessed a complete television film of an interview with GEORGE DE MOHRENSCHILDT a recent suicide allegedly involved with LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

Investigation at New York City established that telephone number 212-875-2105 is that of BEN VANMEERENDONK, 115 Willow Street, Brooklyn, New York. VANMEERENDONK is a correspondent for Netherlands Television, Netherlands Broadcasting Corporation.

MONIQUE BASART, Secretary to VANMEERENDONK advised on April 4, 1977 that VANMEERENDONK had departed New York early in the AM of April 4, 1977 by plane for a one-week vacation in Wyoming. In accordance with previous arrangements, VANMEERENDONK was expected to be in telephonic contact with MONIQUE BASART shortly after his arrival in Wyoming to furnish a location at which he would be staying. Miss BASART indicated that she would make this information available to agents when it came into her possession.

On April 5, 1977, MONIQUE BASART, Secretary to VANMEERENDONK advised that VANMEERENDONK had indicated to her on that date that he could be reached care of telephone number 307-353-9916 in Wyoming. She further stated that she believed that this was a private telephone number and she did not know the exact name of the town in the State of Wyoming where VANMEERENDONK was staying.

ALL INFORMATION CONTAINED
HEREIN IS UNCLASSIFIED #645K
DATE 1/26/89 BY SP6 [REDACTED] b7c
Per CIA letter 9/23/88.

ENCLOSURE