

Dear Paul,

2/5/78

When Lil gets time to do some copying I'll have a few pages from the 1/18 release for you. In time you'd get them but these are a few I thought might be of special interest.

One relates to several of Hal's former class. The real Kaffke!

These do not represent real or systematic searching. Rather are they from a hasty scanning of a number of Sections in which the Enquirer people found some references to critics. When Lil noticed this she put those Sections aside so I could go over them.

My chief interests were in records that could be relevant in my FOIA and PA cases.

I did find a few things.

The Epstein-Knebel relationship, according to what Dulles told Hoover Knebel had told Dulles, was to have been as collaborators. That is a little different!

Not expecting it I found a fair amount that is exactly what I said about the curbstone in PM.

Unfortunately I was not able to make notes and won't now have time to retrace and make them. We had a power outage a little after daylight. It lasted until noon. So I sat, wrapped up, and read and marked the pages I wanted copied.

I did get started on making a list of the files and sections that are examined here. My only purpose is to try to direct future searchers to unread Sections.

When you are in touch with AIB people if they have kept a record of references to critics by file and section, or Serial, I'd like to be able to go over those Sections for Jim as soon as possible.

Big stories coming from Lane out there. You'll know before this can reach you.

My own view is that after all these years, maybe so. There has to be a first.

Has to do with new ally, former FBI man; new information; House assassins firings.

Sincerely,
