Dear Mrs. Riney:

Thank you for your kind words about LEGEND. You are quite right, I believe, to draw Mr. Epstein's attention to the discrepancy concerning the foliage on the oak tree in Dallas. You may be sure that his book editors are aware of this. We, in turn, are gratified that the error did not find its way into our condensation.

Sincerely,

Mrs. Barbara G. Riney

N.B. My words about "Legend" were not kind. They were critical of Epstein's use of wrong facts. I wrote him that Epstein misused Readers Digest money.

(OVER)

Sincerely Barbara G. Riney

In Epstein's book he said there were no leaves on the tree near the book Depository, therefore allowing some time for Oswald's driving & starting.
