Dear Ms. Fabre,

You are welcome to use, free, what you list in your letter of 11/26 and anything else I've published.

So also is any other student of Mr. Murgere.

Please tell him that in the event others want to use any of it.

If any of you were here you'd be welcome to copy any of the many records I got from all that FOIA litigation.

Dr. Gerald McKnight, of the local Hood College history department, has a collection of documents I've gotten that students taking his ^{course} The 'olitics of Assassination ~~course~~. I do not know that they would interest you but if there is a spare copy of that kicking around the price is about $25 and it is about two inches of documents. These include some on the King assassination.

I do not know who made the copies. It may have been the book store. But if you are interested he can tell you if a copy is available and how to get it.

Good luck with your project!

I think making a display of it is a fine idea!!

Best wishes,

Harold Weisberg

Dr. McKnight stays too busy. Do not involve him in unnecessary correspondence. If you'd like these records, they are called the "manual" at Hood, I suggest you send him a check for $20 or $25 and ask him for it. He'll I'm sure refund and overpayment and that should also include the shipping costs.
