

Rt. 7, Frederick, Md.
January 25, 1938

Dear Dr. Payne,

Somehow, when I saw the return address and the different handwriting, I knew before opening your note. Yet not from what she had written, for that bespoke her determination and spirit.

Your lines are beautiful and appropriate.

Thank you for letting me know.

Sincerely,

Harold Weisberg

Saturday, January 13th, 1968, 2:00 p.m.

*These painful words,
her pain removed.*

*These harsh, sharp words,
her spirit soothed.*

*Life's last cold words
which must be said
Are sad, sweet words,
"Regina's Dead"*

Dr. Bud Fayne

*The family of Regina Brunel Fayne
acknowledges with grateful appreciation the kind expression of your sympathy.*

Mrs. Martha Brunel + Dr. Bud Fayne