

12/5/69 keep

Jon and Abra

CDN

By Jon and Abra Anderson

STRANGE SCENE at the mayor's human relations luncheon in the Sherman House Thursday. U.S. District Court Judge James Parsons gave a ringing defense of Chicago police forces. But many in the audience privately disputed the state's attorney's police version of how Black Panther Fred Hampton was killed. . . . After Panthers Bobby Rush and Chaka Walls appeared live on WMAQ-TV, State's Atty. Ed Hanrahan called NBC for a videotape of the interview. NBC complied. . . . Speaking of NBC, talk at the network's headquarters is that Chet Huntley has set April 1 as his retirement day. (So far, no firm "night" from Chet.)

Parsons