In anticipation of the possibility of a representative of the Bureau having to appear before some Congressional Committee in connection with the assassination of the President I think there should be prepared immediately a brief which will give the answers to the various questions which might be asked at such a hearing. This should be in addition to the report to the President on the assassination.

The brief should cover the matter of the jurisdiction of the Secret Service and our jurisdiction, the type of liaison maintained between Secret Service and the Bureau in these matters and just what happened at Dallas in the way of liaison prior to the President's visit. Also there should be included the background of Oswald, the background and status of the Fair Play for Cuba and all information which might be needed to answer questions which might be directed to a Bureau representative in this in this matter.

I think this should be prepared under Mr. Belmont's supervision and that it should be started immediately.
