

Arthur Hoppe

THE DISCLOSURE that the FBI secretly infiltrated and investigated the Women's Liberation Movement during its formative years has raised a number of serious questions.

The most serious is, of course, why did the FBI stop?

"It is absolutely essential that we conduct sufficient investigation to clearly establish subversive ramifications of the WLM," J. Edgar Hoover warned his agents in a 1970 memo.

It was also up to his G-men, he added grimly, "to determine the potential for violence" of this clandestine organization and to evaluate whatever "threat they may represent to the internal security of the United States."

Yet, despite the direct orders of Mr. Hoover, the record shows that this simple task was never accomplished!

★ ★ ★

THAT THIS power-mad conspiracy is at least as subversive and an even graver threat today than it was in 1970 cannot be denied.

I have here in my hand a document proving there are 205 card-carrying women in the State Department. Others have infiltrated the highest levels of our government. One (1) avowed woman is even a member of the Cabinet!

Across the land, known women have moved into our clubs, our colleges, our armed services and, yes, even our Merchant Marine. The National Council of Churches has become a hotbed of fuzzy-minded fem-symp who condone ordaining self-confessed women — thus providing them with pulpits from which to spout their insidious feminist propaganda. Only the Pope stands firm.

Self-proclaimed women have taken over as television anchorpeople and now authoress textbooks are rewriting history to warp the little minds of our little children into believing that the shot heard 'round the world was fired by a Minuteperson. Talk about destroying our cherished American Heritage!

It is no secret that these militant women have a secret blueprint for seizing complete control of America. Even now, they are attempting to alter the Constitution and they will not rest until they have inaugurated one of their own as Chief Executrix. What will happen then to our inalienable right to drink beer and watch Monday night football?

★ ★ ★

OH, THERE ARE some fellow travelers among us who contend this is a free country and anyone who wants to go around being a woman can do so. Perhaps. But, as a good American, ask yourself, would you want your sister to marry one?

And, while you're at it, ask yourself where, in the face of this clear and present danger, is the FBI? The current stories say only that it dropped its investigation shortly after the death of Mr. Hoover on May 2, 1972.

I have at hand a yellowing clipping, dated May 12, 1972. It announces the appointment of one Barbara Herwig to be special assistant to the new director of the FBI. It says she prefers to be addressed as "Ms."