Attacks Ervin Measure

efends Crime Data Bill NUN

By Susanna McBee Washington Post Staff Writer

Attorney General William B. Saxbe yesterday defended the Justice Department's proposed bill to regulate the use of criminal information and attacked two key provisions of a more restrictive bill introduced by Sen. Sam J. Ervin Jr. (D-N.C.).

In testimony before a House judiciary subcommittee, Saxbe also confirmed newspaper reports that the FBI has objections to the department's bill. FBI Director Clarence M. Kellity by destroying all traces age 30." ley is to outline the bureau's that an individual ever had a Asked concerns when he testifies record would seem unwise" Thursday before the Civil Rights Subcommittee.

bill's provisions that would set up a federal-state board to make policy for running and five years after release thinks the files should be crime-data banks and would from custody in misdemeanor "jealously guarded." Saxbe allow states to expunge old cases. Sealed records would be also conceded that FBI Direccriminal records. He also criticlosed and unavailable to any-cized a bill introduced by Rep. one either inside or ouside to Mr. Nixon without consult would require states to ex-systems. punge such files.

cal regulations," the Attorney high government officials. General said, adding that he Saxbe told the subcom already has this authority.

In opposing the purging of old crime records, Saxbe said, sion goes beyond what is required. There may be times sealed before the suspect is 30. when a record would need to ment's bill requires sealing Saxbe objected to the Ervin old files seven years after a any White House request in Don Edwards (D-Calif.) that the police, court or corrections ing Saxbe, but he said he ministrative efficiency, there FBI, whose top officials feel it must be one individual di-rectly responsible for the is-suance of detailed andn techni-ity checks made by the FBI on Saxbe told the subcommittee that sealing could pose difficult problems, and suggested that Congress might want to "I believe that such a provi-include a requirement that no criminal record could

"Criminal careers as a rule be reopened, as for example last five to seven years," he when a convicted person seeks said, "and the risk of a man collateral review of his conviction. To foreclose the possibi-

Asked if President Nixon can gain access to Justice De-He noted that the depart- partment criminal files, Saxbe replied that he would consider would expect Kelley to refer inge such files.

The sealing provision is any presidential request for "From the standpoint of adknown to be opposed by the information to him."