$Memphis\ Agrees\ to\ Prohibit\ Police\ Spying\ on\ Political\ Groups$ 4 1 4 178 E Charles R. Babcock view yesterday that the suit was "a

Washington Post Staff Writer iting police spying on political groups. have signed a court settlement prohibsetting agreement, Memphis officials In what is described as a precedent-other cities to pass ordinances ring such intelligence-gathering. Detroit, and has been working to get ington, D.C., Chicago, Houston and suits in several cities, including Washprecedent is important, he said, be-cause the ACLU is involved in similar American Civil Liberties Union, said yesterday that the settlement is the first of its kind in the country. The Jack Novik, an attorney for the

In the court settlement, approved Tuesday by U.S. District Court Judge

Robert M. McRae Jr. in Memphis, the city denies any illegal activities by its "domestic intelligence unit" in monitoring civil rights activists in the

But the city agrees not to engage in any form of political intelligence-gath-ering in the future. This includes proparticipants at public rallies. taking photos or license numbers of hibitions against using informers or might touch on First Amendment rights, according to the court order. Arthur J. Shea, deputy city attorney ligence unit, the city also agreed to re-view each criminal investigation that To ensure that such surveillance activities aren't shifted to another intel-in Memphis said in a telephone intersee now there were transgressions, but we were trying to make sure the city didn't burn down more than it did," he said. the police to make sure. they were doing. It was the duty of "Hindsight is always 20/20. We can

"We agreed to do what we've always been doing, following the law." of the compromise settlement. money damages were dropped as part Novik said he side's demands for possible to have effective enforcement knowledgement by the city that it's "We hope this amounts to an ac-

> Amendment activities," Novik said. tempted interference with First of the criminal laws while avoiding at organizations, we didn't knew what backlash from the '60s . . . We had destroyed hurriedly. files, only to find that they had been phis, who asked city police for their behalf of politicial activists in Mem-The suti was filed two years ago on

Martin Luther King Jr. to Memphis in sanitation workers' strike that took collected material on a range of activ-1968, Novik said. ities from the Ku Klux Klan to the leadership of many groups. The unit gence unit informers infiltrated the neys established that domestic intelliseveral months, however, ACLU attor-Through depositions over the next