EA-UTTIVIALO HEA

Former F.B.I. Aide Said to Have Invested With Man Now Facing Fraud Trial

By JOHN M. CREWDSON Apac at to The New York Times

WASHINGTON, Aug. 5-The Justice Department's internal inspection team is investigating a reported financial relationship between John P. Mohr, a former top official of the Feder-i a Virginia real estate developer Palumbo. It could not be accused of defrauding the learned whether the reported Small Business Administration investment was made by Mr. according to department Mohr before or after he retired. sources.

According to one source Justice Department's Office of familiar with the scope of the Professional Responsibility. from the F.B.I. as-an assistant possible kickbacks to bureau al Bureau of Investigation, and motel venture organized by Mr.

John P. Mohr

No S.B.A. Funds Found

The developer, Joseph C. Palumbo, was indicted by a Federal grand jury in Richmond ast week along with Samuel R. Calabrese, his cousin, whom law-enforcement sources described as an organized crime figure from Las Vegas.

No S.B.A. Funds round
Several sources said that, to their knowledge, the motel project had not been financed with any of the S.B.A. money that Mr. Palumbo has been accused of obtaining through fraud and that Mr. Calabrese had not been a partner in the Asked whether Mr. Palumbo had not been a partner in the was believed to have links to Organized crime have links to Refore he retired Mr. Mohe organized crime that extended beyond his relationship with his cousin, one Federal official replied "It depends on who you talk to." and another said there was "some rumor that there may be more connections."

According to one state of the retired, Mr. Mohr was the F.B.I.'s top administrative official, with authority over purchasing and at least two independent sources of bureau funds, all of which have come under scrutiny from the Justice Department's Office of to the director in 1972, invested executives from a number of $10,000 in a South Carolina private companies. It is also looking into possible misappropriation of the funds of the bureau's recreation association. over which Mr. Mohr had control, and of funds of the bureau's $18-million-a-year medical insurance program.

The insurance program is administered by the Special Agents Mutual Benefits Association, of which Mr. Mohr was once president, and for which he served as a paid consultant after his retirement from the bureau.

One of Mr. Mohr's associates said that he believed Mr. Mohr's $10,000 investment in the motel, the Family Inn of Florence, S.C., had come from his own funds. He said that Mr. Mohr had "inherited a substantial amount of money."

This associate said that Mr. Mohr became involved in the Palumbo venture after learning of it from his son-in-law, a student at the University of Virginia who was a client of Mr. Palumbo's Richmond insurance agency.

Trial Due Next Month

Mr. Palumbo and Mr. Calabrose, who is described in the