

formant Gary Thomas Rowe Jr.

And in Hayneville, Rowe's attorney, J. Paul Lowery of Montgomery, said he felt certain that Rowe had been indicted by the grand jury in the murder of Viola Gregg Liuzzo of Detroit.

Governors vote Nobel for Carter

• HILTON HEAD ISLAND, S.C. —

Twelve Southern governors, including two reluctant Republicans, voted Wednesday for a resolution proposing that President Carter get the Nobel Peace Prize for his achievements at the Camp David summit.

Republicans James B. Edwards of South Carolina and John N. Dalton of Virginia joined the other GOP chief executive present, Pierre S. duPont of Delaware, in voting with the Democratic majority. The resolution was offered by Tennessee's Ray Blanton.

A tense parliamentary wrangle preceded the vote just before the governors concluded their annual get-together. At one point, Louisiana's Edwin W. Edwards observed, "Are we going to have war on a peace resolution."

Blanton offered to withdraw the proposal but the concensus was that such a move would be construed as belittling the president's accomplishments. Blanton's text praised Carter for "bringing together the heads of two of the oldest countries in the world to effect this covenant in the Middle East."

Crime spree ends in death

• KENNER, La. — A man and woman allegedly robbed at least three motels in less than an hour, then broke through a police roadblock and led officers on a chase that ended when the woman driver was shot to death, authorities said Wednesday.

Police said Gregory S. Martin, 21, of Avon Lake, Ohio, was captured after breaking his left leg when the car careened out of control into trees near New Orleans International Airport.

Robin Armes, 20, an airman at Keesler Air Force Base in Biloxi, Miss., was found dead at the wheel, the coroner said.

★ FBI informer reported indicted

• HAYNEVILLE, Ala. — A grand jury looking back into the 1965 night-rider slaying of a civil rights worker from Detroit made its report during a secret court session here Wednesday.

The Michigan branch of the American Civil Liberties Union, however, said it has confirmed that the grand jury returned a murder indictment against former FBI in-

Knoxville Journal / Sept. 21, 1978