Dear Roger,

Thinking this morning about our recent conversations, especially about Livingstone, I should have told you that I have no intention of giving any sources, that I want as good and solid a record as I can have and that I want to be able to protect myself. But with his insanities he has made much trouble, is about to make more, and has wasted great amounts of time for many of us.

As has Lifton. His working relationship with Waybright while Waybright was working for Livingstone is an important matter to me even if I am not able to do anything about it.

So, I am interested in these recent things of which you said you would send me the records you made but you have been pretty forgetful in that area recently, no doubt from your own deep preoccupations.

If any of this is used in writing the only source that need be indicated is my files.

I urge you to bear in mind what I said is his pattern of behavior. He can be very persistent.

And no matter how irrational the ideas he gets, once he gets them are real to him. There is nothing too crazy for him to believe.

His message on your answering machine is typical of him. And the worst part is that he does believe it!

I want to be as well prepared as possible, so please send these things.

Best,

Hand
