Mr. Ballard has your manuscript - He wants to meet you - As he is old, maybe you should drive down & see him -

Enclosed is WTOB editorial per your request -

I've had no response from WTOB. Thanks for text. I think we should follow up for reasons stated earlier, force them to at least consider offering equal time vs. pers. 4,6. Re Ballard: he said he'd like to stop off here en route his West Virginia operation. he'd be going less than three jiles out of his way to do so and there is much I can sho him here than I cannot in <sup>signed</sup> Ballard Washington. I will, however, be glad to see him there. He indicated his age to me (60 years in business) and a few other things I'd like to discuss with you. However, I am not yet over a bout with a virus that had commenced when you were here. It has left me very weak and physically unsteady. Right now I fear trying to drive to D.C., that weak. If I walk out to get the paper it poops me...If Ballard gives the copies he makes to you, would you please rush one to Russ Trunzo, 2721 E75th Pl., Chicago. He is in touch with Revel's brother and wants copy for him. He also has done much work on Malcolm X case, has helped me in other ways. I'd also be happy for Ballard to make copies other limited editions. I think it best he get no advertising because there could be economic retaliation. When he discussed financing printing, he wondered aloud about this and I told him honestly what I thought and what my experience indicated probable. ...As soon as I'm able I'm going to write epilogie charging deal with Foreman as per discussion <sup>Bill</sup> yesterday in your absence. We have now an opportunity I want to discuss with you as soon as we can. I have traced pretty much of it out & I'm convinced we have opportunity. If we do not talk today, speak to Bill.
