Dear Bud,

I'm really pressed for time today, and I expect working company through Tuesday. Aside from the accumulation, I have none letter today requiring answer. If I get to responding to one from Jerry yesterday I'll enclose a copy.

I have two immediate purposes in writing:

I have been thinking of this play vs Jim and have reached the conclusion that DJ has other, bigger objectives, so much bigger that they decided in advance to risk conviction, even trying, for the publicity value. They have already violated his rights. I've taken the time to check the ABA standards. Those 113 pages can't possibly serve other purposes (unless he tries to get them restricted, as I've counselled Ivon today). If you can consider this analysis possible, then consider it further in the timing and the staging.

Today I got more than I'd asked for on John George. I got the picture and what ~~XXI~~ I did not earlier have, a long rap sheet. Aside from finking for the narcs, he was well known to the FBI. I spoke to "ou Wednesday, when he was, you can understand, real busy. I made no reference to this. It was postmarked Wednesday!

Is the reading not pretty obvious?

Hurriedly,
