Dear Jim. 10/21/72

after phoning you about Jimny's letter I got back to the four envelopes. As this point, supper time (and we havecompany coming) I'm half way through second, to the 6/9/68 hay letter to Battle. I've done what I said I couldn't take time for but feel I have to. Or, about 3,000 words to now! My reasons are to be sure that nothing is missed and because I have seen what you may or may not have but aidn't tall me you did in those two fantastic huie letters to may. I have made detailed notes on them, less detailed on other things. I think these require changes in what you have written and there can be be composite without jeopardizing May's rights. The amount of overkill to now is irrelevant.

This does not mean that you have to do it. but I am convinced that treating this as a more ap endix is not acceptable. It relates to almost every argument we make, confirms much and indicts everyone, including the judge and all lawyers. It is fantastic. Shank God for his unapeakable ego!

I write this in the event any or the company goes back into town tonight so it can reach you needly. I don't think there should be ANY final typing until we can so over this.
