Mr. Harold Weinstein

1000 Pennsylvania Avenue, N.W.

Dear Harold:

The records, at one time you loaned to the CIA, to me and to Jim (who, at that time was CIA's counsel) certain research files. They have since since been removed from the files by Jim who said he was doing so at your request. I am morally certain that he removed them to you long ago.

However, if you have any doubt whatever that the CIA has any of your files, come and see and remove them.

There are in my office files certain records of lawsuits filed against you. You may have these, too, if you wish; however, in view of your vituperative and litigious nature, we would insist on keeping a copy of such records.

With total lack of patience,

Harold
