

10/1/78

Dear Marc,

Relet 28, here are the Braden documents I've received from the ~~1/16~~ files of the Dallas Field Office of the FBI.

I'd discussed them with Dad. He said he'd be stopping off to get and discuss them.

Please tell him that you asked for them and that I've sent them to avoid his taking the time unnecessarily, unless he wants to discuss them further.

Best,

Dear Harold:

I enjoyed talking with you yesterday, and will be back in touch with you on the contract matter within two weeks.

Jane mentioned to me your discussion of Jim Braden and our pending libel defense to his suit in Maryland. Whatever documents you have which you think would be useful to us in that case will be greatly appreciated; we can do all necessary copying here in the office if that will be convenient to you. I fear that the suit will not be thrown out on summary judgment, so all supporting documentation will become urgently needed. Thank you for your interest in the defense.

Sincerely,

Marc Feldman
