Dear Harold:

I appreciate very much the Jack Anderson column on Nugan Hand. We have quite a collection of material on the subject, both in the Paisley file and in a separate file. One of these days the information will come in handy.

The only thing new here is the representation of Christian David in his attempt not to be extradited from Leavenworth to France. He may be a source of valuable information on the JFK case. As you know, he is credited with the assassination of between 50-90 people, mostly in the early 1960s.

In the very near future Jim will be opening a law office in the same suite as the Assassinations Archives. I shall have an office there, but will keep an office in Rosslyn. I plan on spending more and more of my time on the Archives project.

Hoping that your health is tolerably good, I am

Sincerely yours,

Bernard Fensterwald, Jr.

Dear Bud,

1/11/85

Dear Bud, (I'm not feverish but I'm also not well, respiratory and reaction to medicine.) Glad to get your letter of the 9th. Jim, to whom I've bot spoken much recently, made brief mention of the move and David but I've no details on ~~z~~ either. Good luck with both!

I'll will be xeroxing something I'm sending to those to whom I sent a copy of my pro se petition and I'll enclose a page without attachments. I thought I'd included "the same panel" but either forgot or for some reason removed it while reading the rough draft. So if you didn't earlier, you now know what justice is and means.

I sent Jim a copy of the petition when I mailed the 15 to the court. Hope you have time to read it because while the prospects of an en banch hearing are never good I think it may be useful in other ways.

Especially if it gets what also is unlikely, some attention.

Jim also asked me to find out if I can save anything on file cabinets. I spoke to the ~~xxxxxxxxxxxx~~ wife of the owner of the place I got mine. She'll find out if there can be direct shipment from the factory. Otherwise there would be an added trucking charge of they'd have to be hauled from here, great nusiance even if possible.

Best to you all,

He Cole
